

DAVID HAMBURGER

COMPOSER BIOGRAPHY:

David Hamburger is an Austin-based composer for film, television and advertising. His music is currently airing on the A&E series "Shipping Wars;" previous shows include "Heavy" (A&E), "My 600 LB Life" (Discovery) and "Quints By Surprise" (TLC). In 2010 he scored the award-winning documentary When I Rise, which debuted at South By Southwest and aired on the PBS series Independent Lens, and his score and original songs for the documentary short Wild Texas Weather can be heard six times a day, six days a week at the Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum in downtown Austin. Advertising work includes spots and short films for Autozone, Breakstone's, Frost Bank, Maxwell House, Milkbone, Mitchum, Southwest, Whataburger and Wendy's, as well as four volumes of library music for Firstcom. An award-winning author and roots music authority, David has toured with Joan Baez, appeared as a regular performer on the Food Network show Emeril Live! and performs regularly in Austin.